ODDED OF DEVENUE ON DEVIDING TOTAL

Plaintiff,	ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL
V.
CASSANDRA KAMINSKI	Case Number: 10-30034
Defendant.
Betendant.	/
In accordance with the Bail Reform facts require the detention of the defendant pe	Act, 18 U.S.C. §3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following ending trial in this case.
	Part I – Findings of Fact
(1) I find that:
	believe that the defendant has committed an offense
☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)	rm of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841 or 846;
a under 10 c.s.c. 3 72 ((c)	• has not rebutted the presumption established by finding that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appear	arance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
	Alternative Findings
	tablished by a preponderance of the evidence that there is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
☐ I find that the government has esta	ablished by clear and convincing evidence that there is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or Part I	II – Written Statement of Reasons for Detention and information submitted at the hearing established the following factors under 18
U.S.C. § 3142(g):
✓ (a) nature of the offense	- Defendant is charged in a Complaint with Credit Card Fraud
	ce - The evidence is strong, and includes her statement.
✓ (c) history and character
	mental condition - Drug abuse history.
	financial, family ties - No job; minimal assets; family ties in California.
	ory and record of appearance - Convictions for grand theft; receiving stolen property and n of controlled substance for sale. She served 16 months in prison and was released from months ago.
(d) probation, parole or l	bond at time of the alleged offense -

Defendant has family in California, but has stated that she does not intend to return to that state. She has an active substance abuse habit. The charged offense includes possession of machinery and materials to manufacture false credit cards and identification documents. The charged conduct is indicative of a sophisticated criminal enterprise. Defendant flew to Michigan on one way ticket with an accomplice. Pretrial Services views her as a flight risk. I entirely agree.

(e) danger to another person or community -

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
